“ Lora, Tim and family,
I am so very sorry to hear April lost her battle. All of you have been in my thoughts and prayers since I heard the news. Please know I'm here if you want someone to listen as you work your way through your grief. There are no words anyone can say that will make your heartache go away - but I hope knowing others care will ease that ache a little bit. Love, Wanda

“ I am sorry to hear about April. May the God of all comfort be with you. I have found comfort in God's promise found in Revelation 21:4. God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more." I hope this thought will bring you some hope and comfort.

“ Justin I was deeply saddened by the news of April passing. I never had the pleasure of meeting April but I felt like I knew her because you always talked about her. My Prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. Just know that she is not suffering anymore. God wanted his child to come home and rest. She is looking down on you. Perhaps they are not the STARS in the sky but rather openings in heaven where the love of our loss ones pours through and shines down to let us know they are HAPPY. I will keep you in my prayers may God bless you today and forever.

“ I loved to hear April laugh. Sometimes at KPMG she could start a whole group of people laughing, just hearing her own laugh. Once, when she wasn't feeling well, I drove her to Henry Medical with her and waited in the ER for Justin. Another patient asked if I was April's mother - well you know that cracked her up. We laughed about it for weeks. Love to the whole family, especially those wonderful sisters.

“ We are so very sorry that April's time had come. I know y'all are going to miss her so much. She was a kind sweet person. I remember her mostly in much younger years, the youngest sister. Always loved to see how close all of y'all were and are. So important. Thank you for taking such good care of her on earth. Love you all! -Kellie (Brimer) Frissell
