“ My Dad, Snooky, Futral and the gang at the Hapeville Post Office were like family members to me. I can't remember not knowing Snooky. As a youngster, he taught me to see joy in mundane things and have fun every day. He made a very positive mark on me and on the many who knew him. My very deepest sympathy to Roxanne and all who loved Snooky.

“ May the angels lift you up at this time until the day they lift us all to Heaven. Having been your friends for over 52 years makes this so hard. May our comfort be certain in the knowing of our destiny. We Joneses love you all so much. I will be there.
