“ 10 months ago, a very special person came into my life, Toni Bratti Dampier. She brought with her, her mother Barbara Whipple, her son Alex and daughter Juel. Barb took my heart from day 1. She was more than a grandmother figure, but we connected in a way I think only we could. The last 2 perfect fit pieces to an impossible puzzle. God took this Angel home. He couldn't see her in pain another minute and decided she would be an important addition to his Army of Angels. She will be missed dearly by many, but she isn't gone from our hearts and memories.
