“ Bobby and I were cousins and grew up together in Albany. We kept in touch over the years and reconnected when I moved from Arizona to Peachtree City in late 2005.

I moved away when I went into the Navy and later graduated from the University of California. Los Angeles.

Bobby and I played golf together frequently after I moved back to Georgia. We were very close and he will be deeply missed.

“ We will miss you at the next class reunion.

I know you're in the arms of your beloved Jesus. While heaven is celebrating your arrival, we are mourning your departure from earth. I expect to see you again one day.
