“ My condolences to the McBroom family. Even with a firm hope for the future death is still accurately described as an enemy at 1 Corithians 15:26. So we can't help but feel the void when someone we love dies. The Bible also hold out a hope that many who have died will live again. I hope this bring you some comfort in your difficult days ahead.

“ I loved Mr. Cal dearly and know that he will be missed. So glad I could be there if only for a short time to show some support and love for y'all. I'm also thankful that I had the chance to visit him in October and tell him that I loved him. Your family is amazing and that is due in no small part to your father. He was a very kind and special person. Prayers are with you all during this difficult time.
