“ To the family of Cecil Mullins - I am so very sorry to hear about the death of Cecil. My sympathies are extended to the whole family. Cecil and my brother were best of friends in Clintwood High School, both graduating the same class. And we were neighbors of Cecil and his family. I became reacquainted with Cecil just a few years ago and so glad I got to have a lengthy talk with him and to read his book. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this most difficult time.

“ Another patriot over the bridge. Cecil has been a mainstay in my memories of times past when we crewed aircraft with three different companies together, and, as well with the U.S. Air Force Reserve at Charleston. I am saddened by the fact that his presence in the exciting world of aviation has ended. But, now he is on the next most important journey into eternity. I am glad that he has kept in touch via facebook, and his book "The African-Bush Pilot" will be a cherished addition to my personal library of favorite books. May God be a strong presence with family during this period of adjustment without him in your midst. -- Chris

“ I met Cecil about a year ago when we did an interview for 20thCenturyAviationMagazine and since we were both Appalachian Mountains boys we became friends. Cecil your memory will live through your written words and I'm sure through your works as well. Condolences to your family, you will be missed as you fly west for the final time. God bless you as you soar in the heavens...

“ So very sorry for your loss. Cecil was a great person, I had the pleasure of serving with him in the Tennessee Air National Guard and later flying as a crew member with him in the Air Force Reserve at Charleston AFB, SC. Cecil will be truly missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing such a great person that Cecil was.

“ Dear Teresa and family, I am so sorry to hear this news. I know what joy came to your life by knowing your father. Your time with him was too short, but I know you packed a lot of love and memories into the time you did have together. This love will continue to fill your heart forever. Lew and I will keep you in our thoughts as you face the days ahead. Hope to see you soon. Love you!!
