“ I first met Charlie in 1965 as a high school senior working at Freddy Smith's Texaco at the intersection of Flat Shoals and Fayetteville Rd. in S.E. Atlanta. Charlie worked there part time while his full time job was with Atlanta Gas Light. He befriended me, took me under his wing and even offered to let me take his new 1965 GTO to my Jr. Sr. prom. He got me a job at AGL where I worked until 1967 when I went in the Army. I have thought about him many times through the years, tried to friend him on the internet to no avail. Sadly I saw his obit in the AJC this morning. My deepest sympathy to his wife, children and family. Rest in peace my ole friend. Gone but not forgotten.

“ I found out today about Charlie. My condolences to his family.
Charlie was one of my favorite customers at golden corral. I enjoyed waiting on him. He will so be missed. To his son Lamar and his "best friend"Ann you are in my thoughts.
