“ I will always remember Corey as Loving, Caring, Bright and Funny. His Laughter always brought a smile to my face. Always quick with a comeback, whether it was witty or a bit sarcastic it made me smile because the Laugh made it!

This trophy picture was a true proud moment for him. He didn't really like playing baseball like his older brother Joey and my son, Justin but he made it through the season and received this trophy. Talked about it All day.

Corey was like a nephew to me in his childhood years. So much so that my daughter thought they were cousins. I missed some of his teen years and most all of his adult life but never stopped loving him as though we were Family. Gone too soon and Forever will be missed. Prayers for Peace and Understanding to All that knew and Love him. Lisa “ Corey had a warm and caring heart. We can't believe you're gone so soon. He has joined God, Pawpaw (Charles L. Williams) and his grandmother (Lora E. Williams) now, singing and dancing with our lord. He will be greatly missed and loved forever. Our hearts go out to Nancy, Joe, Joey, and family. Love, Uncle Ronnie, Aunt Sharon, Logan, and Ansley.

“ Words can not express the sorrow that I feel for the lose of my Nephew Corey. He and his brother Joey are like sons to me. My daughter Courtney and Corey were born 5 months apart and were very close growing up. Usually where there was one, you saw the other. Our hearts are broken and we are all devastated. We will miss you terribly! Shine bright Corey! We will love you forever!! Aunt Janice

“ The world feels a little dimmer knowing this neon light is no longer walking among us, but there is comfort in imagining him strolling through the clouds—watching over all of us—with the BEST playlist playing in the background.

I can't begin to express how lucky I am to have had the privilege of knowing this absolute gemstone... to love him, to laugh with him, and to share so much of life beside him. I will never take for granted the gift of working with him every day, carpooling together, celebrating, partying, joking, and letting him be part of so many milestones—buying my home, job changes, my baby shower. He was always there, cheering me on, believing in me even when I was a complete nut.

His chuckle, his glow, and his joy will forever live in my heart and memories.

Wishing peace, comfort, and healing to everyone who loved him. May his light continue to guide us.
