“ Dear Dale,
I came to see you last week. I could see your smile as you were nodding your head. I am your aunt, but you were a brother to me. We went everywhere, and did most everything together. Remember when we played in the sand dunes behind your house using your Tonka Trucks? One of my favorite memories is the time you tried to teach me how to drive your dirtbike. You were running along giving directions, and then I was headed for the woods..more specifically, a tree. The next thing I heard was JUMP! JUMP!, I jumped, and the bike went alittle farther and fell on its side. We laughed for I know 20 minutes. When we speed skated, you were alot faster than I was, so you would get my hand and we would speed skate together until I had to let go or lose control !!
I miss you Dale. I love you, and I always will. When I talked with you at the hospital awhile back, I wanted to come and see you. You said that it was okay, and if it got serious that you would call me. It all happened so quickly, but I keep asking myself...why didn't I go and see you anyway? You are with the Lord now, and you will never feel pain again. You are perfectly made in every way and reside in God's heaven. You are my nephew, but really my brother.
I love you forever,
Aunt Lauri
