December 17, 1950 - May 23, 2025

Deborah "Debbie" Webber Creecy, 74, of Jonesboro, Georgia, passed away peacefully at home on May 23, 2025, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on December 17, 1950, in Atlanta, Debbie was the daughter of Bill and Virginia (Schwearing) Webber. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents and her brother, Ronald Webber. She is survived by her devoted husband of 51 years, Stanley W. Creecy, her cherished children, Sean Creecy and Kristen Ramsey, and her adored grandchildren, Collin Creecy and Jewel, Jasmine, and June Ramsey, who were the absolute lights of her life. Debbie's life was filled with adventure, creativity, and deep love. Debbie was a proud graduate of Georgia State University, where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. She began her professional life as a teacher, sharing her skills in typing and shorthand, before dedicating several years to raising her children as a stay-at-home mom. Later, she fulfilled her lifelong dream of working in the airline industry, holding roles with Southwest, Northwest, and Delta Airlines. Certified as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR), Debbie made lasting contributions in human resources and customer service. A true artist and musician, Debbie played clarinet with Tara Winds and brought beauty into the world through her vibrant paintings, which she proudly sold at local art festivals. She had a zest for life-rollerblading with joy, basking in the sun at the beach, and always seeking out her next travel adventure. Flying was her passion, and she never missed a chance to soar to a new destination. Debbie's faith was a guiding force in her life. She was a lifelong church member, first at Mountain View Baptist Church and later at Jonesboro First Baptist Church. Her love for her family was boundless, and she never parted from them without saying, "Love you to the moon and back." Her spirit, warmth, and laughter will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

“ I was in school with Debbie and in band with her for years and in Tara Winds in later years. A good friend and always peppy and cute. A great Clarinet player. Fond memories.

“ Debbie and I grew up together in Mountain View. We went to the elementary school together, then junior high and then high school. She was a great friend and I am saddened by the family's loss. I so enjoyed being in the band with her. She would really rock it and could play that clarinet. I remember when she got first chair and beat out a senior. She was so talented. I am sorry that we lost touch after one of our first reunions, I saw her on Facebook a few times and said a few things but just could not get in touch and that I am sorry for; maybe I should've tried harder. Prayers for the family and her precious grandchildren. I will always remember the good memories of our early years. Angela Cook, Hudson.
