“ Liz was a special neighbor. So patient with my goofy antics as the mom of two ACTIVE boys, whom I loved, along with Phillip, their good friend!

I loved working with Liz. I remember how hard it was for her to walk up and down the long halls at HMC. She was such a good nurse.

She was a quiet, sweet nurse I worked with years ago. She had obvious difficulty walking the long halls at Henry, but she did what it took to care for her patients. I never heard her complain. Rest in peace, Elizabeth.

*Liz was a wonderful and kind person. We worked together for several years. We enjoyed each others company and talking about our children. Her loving spirit was a beautiful asset to all who knew her.
