“ Auntie Evelyn!
The favorite aunt to all the great nieces and nephews! You were always the fun one and gave all of us so many great memories! Riding the bus with you when you drove for the School for the Deaf, many spend the night parties and just hanging out with you, Uncle Harry, Michele and Scott! Rest well Auntie and give my Mama, Maw Maw, Paw Paw and Mags a big hug for me!!!
Love you always,
Julie Jarrard

“ There are so many memories of love and laughter associated with my "Favorite" Aunt Evelyn. I cannot remember a part of my life she wasn't a part of. The nights we spent with our Grandmother when Evelyn was a teenager, sitting in the floor playing games (like Cootie). The movies we were taken to and the real quality time she spent with me and my brothers as kids. She taught us in Sunday School, took us for rides during Halloween to find ghosts in Peters Woods, Birthdays, Thanksgivings, Christmas gathering with family, she was a constant reminder of what a big loving family should look like. Her quick wit and laughs ring in my ears even now. We all will miss her. I'm just happy I have the promise of a reunion one day with Daddy, Mom and Evelyn. I Love You sweet Evelyn, enjoy your well deserved reward... Your "Favorite Nephew", Eddie
