“ I am saddened to hear about Aunt Grace's passing. She is the last of her siblings to go home. I know there was a joyful family reunion at her arrival in heaven. Thank you, Lord.

My first memory of Aunt Grace & Aunt Ruby was sitting with Grandma in the Commerce High School Auditorium as they practiced for their high school graduation. I was born in April before their 15th birthday in May 1949. They were like older sisters to me, when I was a child. I remember the day; they decided to leave home & make their way & future plans as young women, facing new challenges. In my mind's eye, I can still see their faces & the excitement of facing those new challenges.

Aunt Grace's kindness will always be felt by family; friends & her laughter will echo in our ears. She had a wonderful laugh. May her soul rest in peace and her memory be a blessing.

“ Aunt Grace, what a wonderful lady she was! To me and my sisters she was so precious. She was not quite ten when I was born. She told me of feeling me in my mother's womb before I was born and a connection was made between her, my mother, and me that will be with me forever. She introduced perfume, nail polish, girlie clothes and so much more when we were young. As she grew up, married and had her boys we delighted in those cute babies carrying them around, playing with them. We grew up to loved her dearly and cherished our times together. When John died, dad and mom were there helping her through those days of grief. Then suddenly my dad died and there was more grief to share. Mom and Grace were close and she was there to help her and us. She would take mom to Greensboro for those early family reunions. When mom was going through her last months Grace drove up early every morning from Stockbridge to Marietta to care for her in the daytime. Time moved on as time does, she was there for me in the lose of my precious Allen in 2019. When Ruby passed away she met my sweet John and waaasbthere at our wedding in 2020. Last July at the family reunion John and I sat beside her and shared precious memories that I will carry with me until the Lord carries me home too. My heart is breaking in the lose of my dear aunt and John in the last 5 months. I love you sweet Grace and thank you for the blessings you brought to my life. Leneva Blackwell
