“ Aunt Gay, as we knew this lovely lady, was a sweetheart. We were blessed to know her & spend time with her. HEAVEN has another angel, but what a celebration of life!
Our sympathy to her beautiful family, love Jorge & Anita.

“ Gay was a beautiful woman inside and out. She had a very calming presence about her. Even in her 90's, she spoke of education and the children as though she was still a teacher. From what I have been told, she was one of the best and we certainly saw why. We were both honored to have known her and to have spent some time with her over the last 10 years. She will be missed by us and many others. God bless all of the family. We are praying that you all find a peace knowing she was an angel on earth for sure.

“ Grace was my supervising teacher when I student taught at Lee Street. She had such an impact on my life and my career as a teacher. She was so wise, soft spoken and gracious. She was a wonderful role model and I will never forget her. My deepest sympathy to all of her family that she loved so much.
