“ Knew Helen a long time. Mother to my daughter-in-law, Sherry, mother-in-law to my son, Kevin. Mammie to our mutual granddaughters, Rachel and Amber. So many occasions and memories shared. She had a heart for strangers, treasured her friends, and loved her family intensely, but her Savior most of all! Helen will be missed deep deeply.

“ I'm going to miss having Helen across the street, it just won't be the same. We spent time visiting together standing in the yard with rakes in our hands. Or sitting on the curb and just chatting. Sitting on the porch with a glass of iced tea and solving the world's problems. She shared food with us and I helped her with small tasks. Just being "across the street back & forth neighbors". I loved her, and there will be a big empty spot in my heart every time I look across the street and know she is not there.

“ Mrs. Helen was a sweet and kind lady. I had the privilege of talking with her in our Dorcas Ladies Class at Harvest Baptist Tabernacle. We talked about being widows. Praying for all.
