“ Helga, I will never forget meeting you and Bill at Fort MacPherson Chapel when I returned from Germany the summer of 1992. Your warm smile and strong embrace impressed me, and I was happy to get to know your wicked sense of humor and straight forward personality. I've moved away from Georgia and now have a family of my own, but whenever I came home to visit it was always wonderful to see you again, give you a hug, and hear some of your spicy jokes. You will be missed and I appreciate having the opportunity to know you, experience your laughter, and witness the crazy interactions you had with your husband. Du bist jetzt eine engel im himmel.

*Mit Liebe,
Mary and Family
