“ I have known Herb for thirty plus years. We attended the Rockwood Branch. I was good friends with his first wife Bernice. We have shared many testimonies of the gospel. I am sure he will be missed. May Heavenly Father comfort his family during this time of mourning.

“ Herb Ross is a giant among men. Highly respected, Brother Ross is legend for his kindness, great sense of humor, and fine leadership skill. He loves his wife with all of his great heart, often sharing with those of us with whom he served in the Atlanta Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints examples of her many accomplishments. We love the twinkle in his eyes and his beautifully shy grin. What a treasure he is! What a joy it will be to see him again!
