“ Dear Len, Jeanette and Family,
Don and I send our sincere condolences to you at the loss of your father. It's never easy losing a parent and something that is felt every day. We are asking God to bless you as preparations are being made for the funeral and as the day approaches that you will feel God's sweet presence and comfort. We love you all and pray for you in the days to come. Also, for traveling grace on your return home. Please let us know if we can do anything for you. Don and Diane Perkins
