“ I met Bro Malcolm about 50 years ago. He was helping work my grandma, Mary B.Carrells, garden. She was a widow and needed the help. He did not hesitate to help her. Sometimes he would bring his children with him and they would also help pick the vegetables.along with my brothers and I.
In the past few years I met him again at Hampton Heights where he was a faithful member. He always had a big smile and a kind word.
He will be missed.
