“ Sandra and family, I am so sorry. I did not know John had died. I knew he wasn't feeling well but I had no idea that he was so ill. I pray that God will encourage and watch over you. I pray that He will remind you of really good memories and that you will not only grieve but smile.

Blessings, Elaine

“ We will miss our good neighbor, John. His talent of growing vegetables and sharing them with us was special. We enjoyed our visits together and pray God's blessing on all of the family.

“ Woody,
My heart goes out to you. Loosing a parent is hard. Especially around the holidays. My prayers are with you through the days to follow.

“ My sympathy to you dear family for our loss of cousin John. I have fond childhood memories of summers in Jonesboro playing with John and Alfred. We also had such wonderful family reunions at my parents lake house and those Woodward family picking and singing in Jonesboro. He will be missed by all.
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Love , Margaret
