“ It is most unfortunate that I didn't get the chance to meet Joseph. However, I heard so much about him from my daughter, Madison. I know how very special he was to her and heard often of all the plans for their future. The pictures she shared of them; I could see how much they loved each other. I felt through her, I did know him, and I was looking forward to being a part of their future. This is so heartbreaking! I pray for my daughter and Joseph's parents, sister, and extended family. There are no words I could share that could ease your pain. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I worked with Joe at Caterpillar and he was a really hard worker and once I got to know him he became a great friend . What I did learn about him is that he had a big heart and was determined to be the best he could be . Im glad I got the opportunity to know him and have him as a friend . My heart breaks for his family and I pray for them during this difficult time . May you rest in peace Joe . - Kristie Ard and the Caterpillar work crew -

“ My buddy Joe, remember meeting you in middle school, we were both class clowns never a dull moment hahah . You was definitely high spirit and everyone loved when you showed up. I remember you always checking up on me as we got older and even leaked up to have a cold one and talk about life and catch up. You always had a smile on your face and always had positive things to say about life. Man you're truly gonna be missed! I'm definitely praying for your family my buddy! Rest easy bro!

“ I'm gonna miss you, old friend.
I wanna laugh me some more,
All good things come to an end, I'd love to share a few more. Wen we met the first time, the day the friendship began. You're a part of my life. I'm gonna miss you, old friend.
There are times I've relived, you wouldn't want me to mourn. It's just so hard to believe you won't be around anymore. I'll try to live my best life,til we meet up again. There's a hole in my heart, I'm gonna miss you old friend.
There'll be times I'll relieve; ain't gonna cry anymore. I know you're smiling down on me, ain't that what friendships are for? Joe you were one of a kind, I'm gonna miss you old friend.

“ Joe Gray was an incredible person and nephew. I loved talking to him and getting his take on any subject. I always knew him to be thoughtful and kind and felt drawn to his energy whenever he was in the room. So much so that I probably annoyed him trying to get him to stay and talk and not go up to his room. Once when I came over to jam up in the bonus room Joe asked me which set of drums I wanted to play. He let me play the real set and he played the electronic drums because he knew that's what I preferred. He was generous and polite like that. One day I'll get to have that "next" conversation with him. Until then, he is in my heart. I wish he didn't have to go so soon.

“ I remember Joe as what I called a "snot nosed 17 year old kid". He worked for me at Jiffy Lube in Fayetteville GA. I tried to teach him everything I know about automobiles. Years later we worked together at a landscaping company in Peachtree City. He was a kind soul, and I'll miss our late night messaging. Fly high Joe, you're free now. Save me a seat, I'll be seeing you again soon. 🥺💔🥺💔
