“ I am very sorry about your dear loss. Soon our enemy death will be gone forever and those we love so much will be brought back to life again (Isaiah 25:8; 26:19). May these wonderful promises by our loving God, Jehovah, comfort you in the coming days.

“ My only sister will be missed. She was like a mom to me when I was a wee child and mother had to work to help make ends meet. But I was always proud of my big sister and how she met and married a fine man like John. And then to give me my first nephew Chris and then my first niece Jill. Lillian was so proud of her family and they were the first topics of our phone calls. I'll have her love in my heart until I leave this life someday, too. I love you, sister. May you now enjoy the rewards and peace that heaven will provide.

“ Lillian was a very sweet person and always so very kind and friendly. She was a lady in all respects. I remember her well, especially from the days of Ranger Drive. God bless all of you in the days ahead. Arthur and Margaret Tester
