“ Dear Taylor family,

My condolences for the loss of your loved one. I know at times like these it's hard to be optimistic about circumstances and most words don't bring comfort, but the Bible contains a hopeful message for us. At John 5:28,29 Jesus gives us the assurance that "those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." We can look forward to this time when we have the possibility of seeing our lost ones again. Hope this at least brings some comfort to you in your time of distress.

“ My dear Baby Girl: I want you to know just how much I will miss you. Your phone call at 7:10 every evening, your sorrows, your tears, your sicknesses and most of all your laughter. I thank God that you are no longer suffering and lonely and that he will have you in his arms. You were precious to me without the help of the Lord, I could not make it. Goodby my BABY GIRL. I will forever miss you. Love you, Mama

“ I am very saddened to hear of Lisa's passing, she had the best personality, always laughing and making others laugh. Although we haven't spoken or seen each other in years we had recently reconnected through Facebook, which I am grateful for. It was nice to know that she was ok and often spoke of the love she had for her family and friends. I will be forever grateful for our memories and laughter. I will continue to pray for her family. Forever in my heart .
