“ To my cousins who are grieving the loss of their precious mother, please know that my heart goes out to you. I remember her when I was just a child and thought she was such a beautiful lady with her pretty long black hair. I especially remember watching her feed one of her infants one day and taking care of another one at the same time. When you're missing her and long to see her so much, just realize she's in a place earning her reward for her works here on Earth.
