“ I've been thinking on what to say. I've read more scriptures in the past few days than I have in years. But I keep reading one.

It's John chapter 16 verse 22. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

Although it's hard for us. It's hard for me I know. I'll see you again.

It's not a goodbye it's I'll see ya later.

Love

“ My prayers are going out to Nancy’s family. To be absent from this body is to be present with the Lord! She’s home now. A couple years ago, visiting Guiding Light, I was praying, how am I going to be singing without the Love of My Life...I was so used to us both singing, with a guitar. I got up, still while praying to myself, and someone said...the piano player wants to know if she could play for you? I didn’t think I knew the pianist ...since I hadn’t seen her in quiet some time. I asked could she play in different keys... after I walked to where she was, I realized it was Nancy. I gave her a big hug! Also, the other miracle God wrought, we never sung together, or ever practiced together. I asked her to come in on the songs if she knew them. Needless to say...she sung with me, making me thoroughly enjoying myself along with her. Even though I told her how much that meant, I have told so many others of how the Lord delivered me that day using Sister Nancy. So, she worked for the Lord all those years. I hope to always remember how God used us both that day. I do know and understand what the family is going through. I’m so sorry. One thing I truly found out, even though Sister Nancy has gone on up ahead, the “Lord” continues to be there with all of you. I found in my experience with the Lord, he’s always there. Praying God will continue to bless you, giving you that inner peace that only God can. It’s not goodbye, only Goodnight, we will meet her again on that eternal day. With Love and Prayers from L Rice and family.

“ Nancy was my sister. We were born 15 months apart and always had fun playing in a magical place we called "across the road ". Our brother Charles would climb a tree, then Nancy, our brother Tony and I would climb up with him and Charles would sway the tree back and forth. We pretended we were in a navy ship out at sea when a strong wind and rain would rock our ship. We built 4 log cabins and a grocery store and used pine cones to pay for groceries. We got empty cans from home and put them in our grocery store. We cut down brush and vines until we found a vine that we could swing on and yell TARZAN as we each took turns.

I was Nancy's first customer BEFORE she went to cosmetology school. The first time was when we were 7 and 8 and I needed my bangs cut. She held my bangs down on my forehead and cut them. When she turned them loose, they were about 1/4 inch long. Momma had to change my hair style for about 3 months until they grew out.

We loved to play the game BANAGRAMS and we would play it every Monday when we met at Cici's for lunch. We often stayed 2 or 3 hours playing it.

The past couple of years we hadn't seen each other in person but we were able to use video chat. We talked on Thursday night and I never thought about it being the last time we would talk. The last thing we always said when we got ready to hang up was I LOVE YOU. The memory of us saying that will be in my heart forever. Nancy is in THE better place now and I know I'll see her again. We used to sing a song called I DON'T KNOW WHEN I'LL GET THERE BUT I'M ON MY WAY. See you later Nancy
