“ I know the passing of a special one is different for everyone, but with time, tears, days of grief; with God's gentleness you will slowly become alright and able to go on but not forgetting our loved one. May the good Lord carry the family through your time of sadness.

“ I have know idea what you must be going through in losing what I think is the single most important compass in my life. I know your mom was that to you, too, and with this loss comes so many layers of heartache. Please know my heart is open to giving you anything you might need during this time of incredible loss.
