“ Remember her not in death, but in life. Carry on her legacy that she built during her life. Carry on her memory by being involved in things she enjoyed and loved most. It hurts, I know. Take comfort in knowing that she now has a brand new life and brand new body, and will never have to experience sickness,pain,heartache or anything that comes with having an earthly life in an earthly body. Her life is now everlasting. Godspeed to Amy Scott Weeks and the rest of your family.
Sincerely,
Chris Timbs
