“ Sometimes you just don't realize how much someone means to you until they're not there anymore! I know in my heart that God had to take you from your family and friends and add you to the wonderful choir in His presence! He got one of the most caring, loving, compassionate men that I knew! I was one of the "lucky ones" because I got to know you as a man that loved his wife, his children, his friends at work and of course me! LOL I could always depend on you to make a joke to just see how I'd react, for instance when I learned of Kathy's B.O.S. or why I needed a "HOT" water heater! God had given you a very special talent, your music was wonderful to listen to, and you never complained when Kathy and I would go to another room so we could hear ourselves talk! You always helped me with my computer problems and never asked for anything in return! You are going to be missed by so many people! We're the ones that are going to hurt or feel lonely because we weren't ready to give you up! I'll do everything I can to help Kathy with her pain and emptiness, because when you left us you left with pieces of all our hearts! There is no time limit on grief and I know that Kathy will do this for a while because of your love for each other! The only good thing I can even think about is one day we'll see you again and I truly believe that this will be the only thing that will help Kathy through her loss of you! Keep watch over her for me because I can't be with her all the time! The boys will help of course but they can't fill your shoes as I'm sure they'll try to do, knowing how much they loved you! Love and miss you my sweet friend! ❤️🎹🎵💙

“ I am so sorry for your loss Sis! I wish I could take your pain and bear it for you. I know your heart is breaking and all that you're feeling. There is nothing that I can say or do that will take it away. Just know that I am here for you and willl do what ever is in my strength and power to do. To help you get through this painful loss, lonliness and emptiness in your life. You will never get over it but I pray for God to give you the strength, courage and faith to make it through one day at a time. Even though I know all that you are feeling, there are just no words that will console you. But you will find the peace and comfort that you need in God. My heart, prayers and love are with you always. I am just a call away, no matter what time day or night. If it's in my power I will be there. There's times when you just want to be alone. I walked this road when I lost Jeannie, and still do. I will walk with you if you let me and want me to. All my love always your siser Gail
