“ My prayers are with you as I ask the Spirit to bring comfort and a peace that passes understanding as you honor your father as he passes to see our Father in heaven. We rejoice, while we grieve that the Lord has prepared a wonderful place for him and now is celebrating the welcome banquet reception for your dad. How we long to see again our loved ones who have passed on ahead of us - and we will not be disappointed, but will share with joy in the reunion when it is our day or at the end of the age. Peace and strength be with you.
