“ Euphemia's Family, my heart grieves for each of you. Euphemia is well, breathing Heavens pure perfect air and united with her Irvin. Best of all she has seen the face of Jesus. After all those years singing Jesus Loves me to all those nursery babies, she now sings praises with her Irvin looking straight at their Lord & Savior. Euphemia I saw 20 months ago at the Valentine Lunch for Seniors! We hugged & caught up. I loved her & she returned that love. Friends are so special even from afar. I look forward to seeing her & Irv in God's timing. Sending love & prayers to the Family.

“ I spent countless hours at the Pearre house growing up with Terrye as my friend. I have so many precious memories that warm my heart. I knew that I would never leave their house hungry... Euphemia was a fabulous cook. Terrye and I could just about talk her in to anything that we wanted to do...we would just wear her down!! What I loved about her most was her sweet heart, her giggle/laugh, her genuine smile and love of people! I'm a better person for being influenced by Euphemia. Heaven is a brighter place today because she has entered her Heavenly home!!!
