“ My thoughts and prayers are with you today. I didn't know Sherri as well as I would have like to, but I will miss her and her daily post. I do know she loved her family and friends and touched many hearts. May you find peace and joy in her memories and comfort in knowing that you will be together again.

“ I went to RHS with Sherri and knew her as a very sweet and pretty girl, she grew into a beautiful woman. I pray that God will get you through this time in your loss of your wife, mother, sister, friend, etc. I sure she were these and more and will surely be missed. I will be praying for your comfort during this time. God just took another angel home. God bless you all.

“ I was a classmate at RHS with Sherri. We lost contact for years. Last year we made contact by email. Made plans to get together at her pool this summer. Sad to say we never did.

How this makes me feel that our days are numbered and the plans we make with others should always be kept. Sherri always shared how great her life was even with her aces and pain, and how happy she was now.

My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I know she will be missed. I am saden of her death.

RIP SHERRI. Nay

“ Sherri was a good friend of mine at Roosevelt High School. Her son, Kevin played T-Ball with one of my son, Denny, in Forest Park. What a sweet person she was everytime we saw her. What a wonderful smile she had. May God give her Family comfort through this time. Love, Susan & Dinky West

“ I went to Roosevelt High School with Sherri and Wayne. It has been great to reconnect on Facebook. My heart is heavy with sorry for the family. You are in my prayers daily. I can only imagine how difficult this must be for you. May God bless you with strength, peace and comfort as you go through this very painful time in your lives. Blessings to all!
