“ It saddens me to read of your loss. May God provide your family with much needed comfort. (2 Cor. 1:3,4) Cling to one another and to the hope of the future God himself has promised, that his Kingdom will take away death forever and that He will wipe our tears away. (Rev. 21:3-5, Is. 25:8) I pray for the day when all those in the memorial tombs will return to life (Is. 26: 19) and you will embrace your loved one again. Until then may you find peace through prayer. Please accept my sincere love and sympathy.
