“ I have spent the entire day thinking of Suzie's smile and laughter. How very infectious they were and how happy they made me feel while growing up. I am also reminded how completely cruel and unfair life can be at times. Although I've not seen Suzie for quite sometime, I've never forgotten how sweet she was to me and how she always welcomed me into her home. She will always have a special place in my heart as my "other Mom." RIP. I love you!
