“ Terry was a sergeant when I was a brand new Police officer and started with Riverdale. I didn't really know how to take him to start with , but it wasn't long that a true friendship was made. And although it's been a long time I'll always remember fishing and hunting and even working with Terry. We lost contact after he retired and didn't see each other for several years. When we finally got back in touch it was like no time had passed at all, I immediately felt like old times. That happens when you find someone that was a real true friend, and Terry was that for me. We still didn't get to talk or see each other as much as I wanted but life gets in the way sometimes. I'll always remember the times we did have together.
