“ I grew up across the street from Vera's home and went to church with her at The Rock. She always asked about my family. One day when we were eating at Captain D's in Stockbridge, we saw someone steal her purse. That day God allowed me and my wife Kristy to be there to help her. We got someone to replace her locks and got her situated. She was a very sweet woman. She is rejoicing in heaven now with God and her fellow friends from The Rock who have gone before her.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Vera's family during this sad time. She was a dear lady and so kind to me the years I was in contact with her.

She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ My sympathies and heartfelt condolences to the family. My heart is saddened today. Vera was the best mother-in-law anyone could ask for. What a wonderful example she set for me. I will cherish the wonderful memories and all the laughter that we shared.
